Mayor McFadden laid before the Council the following resolution:

R E S O L U T I O N .

WHEREAS, In the wisdom of our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well, it has pleased Him to call our friend and co-worker, ROBERT MUELLER, from this life to the higher life with Him; and

WHEREAS, In the passing of our friend, we, the City Council of the City of Austin, are conscious of having sustained a loss well nigh irreparable; for in the life and service of Robert Mueller were exhibited a character so noble, strong and steadfast; a spirit so gentle, sweet, yet courageous; a nature so tender, reserved and trustworthy, that to have been associated with him, to have labored with him, was a blessing and a benediction,

Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL ASSEMBLED:

That we reverently express:

FIRST: Our profound gratitude to God for his exemplary life and generous service;

SECOND: Our deep sense of personal loss of a friend and associate;

THIRD: Our City's overwhelming loss of a wise councillor, a loyal and devoted worker for its best interests;

FOURTH: Our sincere sympathy to his well beloved family and friends in their great bereavement; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

That a page of our Minutes be set aside for the proper recording of this resolution, and that copies be sent to the family and the press.
